CHARLESTON, April 4th, 1872. Democratic and Conservative County Convention.

The Democratic and Conservative voters of Jefferson County are requested to meet in their respective Townships, on Saturday, the 18th day of May, and elect Delegates to a County Convention, to assemble in Charlestown on Saturday, the 25th day of May, at 11 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of choosing representatives of the county in the State Convention which will meet at Parkersburg on Thursday, the 30th of May, at 11 o'clock, "to nominate candidates for Governor, four Judges of the Supreme Court of Appeals, Auditor, Treasurer, Attorney General, and State Superintendent of Free Schools, and also to form an Electoral Ticket and select Delegates to represent the State in the Democratic National Convention." Also to appoint Delegates to a Convention to nom inste a candidate to represent the Senatorial District composed of Berkeley, Jefferson and Morgan counties, in the State Senate. It is hoped the people will give proper at tention to this important matter. JAS LAW. HOOFF. Chm'n. Co. Ex. Com.

April 30, 1872.

THE PRIMARY MEETINGS.

In many States the system of primary elections has been adopted by each party to nomi note its candidates. This mode is liable to serious objections. The plan adopted in this State of precinct or township meetings, which send delegates to a County Convention, where the municipal candidates are nominated, and delegates appointed to district and State Conventions, is probably the best, or would be, if the members of the party would turn out generally, and participate. Otherwise, a few active politicians trade and barter away all the offices in the gift of the people. A meeting is called, and ten towns-people attend; one is made president, three vice-presidents, and one secretary, and these five officials appoint the five laymen present to the County Convention to represent the whole precinct !-And these five purists when they get to the Convention combine with other self-appointed delegates, and distribute all the nominations. among themselves, and demand the undivided support of the party at the risk of disorgani ration and defeat. This is popular government with a vengeance!

The remedy is for the members of the party to turn out en masse, and attend the primary meetings. Let the yeomanry and farmers attend on Saturday, the 18th of this month, and make themselves felt and heard. Let them see that no tricks are played on them. but that everything is done decently and in order, and with perfect fairness. Instead of having the delegates appointed by the chair, let them be nominated and voted for by the meeting. This is the only way to secure fair nominations, and good officers, and to rerfect and maintain the organization of the Democratic-Conservative party.

MOSES S. GRANTHAM.

Under the new Constitution, should it be adopted. Berkeley, Jefferson and Morgan will be entitled to elect two State Senators, and we ob serve, with pleasure, that the name of Moses S. Grantham, Esq , has been proposed by his friends in Berkeley. He is a gentleman of the old school, known to be incorrupt, and in corruptible, wedded to the interests of the people as against all monopolies, and firm as a rock in his convictions of duty, and political principles. We sincerely hope it may be the pleasure of his fellow citizens to elect him to the Senate. His long service in the Senate of Virginia has given him an experience. which must prove of incalculable advantage in a deliberative body. The next Legislature will have stern work, and a plenty of it. before it at its next session, and such strong, practical, conservative, and yet progressive men as Mr. Grantham will be, in that body, the right men in the right place.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

We would remind the Democratic and Con servative voters of the different townships in the county, that Saturday next is the day upon which they are called to hold their Township Meetings, for the purpose of electing Delegates to the County Convention, which will meet one week later. Let the matter be attended to, and every township in the county fully represented in the County Convention.

Those who know him best say President Grant is now worth about $2,000,000, most of which is well invested and bringing good dividends. The only thing which is at all peculiar about it is that four years ago he was not worth two million cents, which goes to show that Mr. Grant is the "smartest" President we ever had, for all his predecessors failed to make the office pay.

THE JUDICIARY.

If any one thing more than another has contributed to preserve civil liberty among the English-speaking races, it has been the prevalence of the principles of the Common Law, and the independence and purity of the judiciary. Even now, notwithstanding the manipulation and reorganization of the Supreme Court of the United States by the Radical party, we yet instinctively look up to that Bench as the conservator of all that remains of respect for the Constitution in the administration of the Federal Government .-Fortunately for the people of this State, they will soon have an opportunity to reorganize their whole judicial system, and to substitute a high standard of intelligence and purity for the very low grade of either which has thus far characterized our Bench. Certain persons in the Constitutional Convention, actuated by motives which we can not help suspecting were interested and demagogical. were bent upon limiting the salaries of our judges to amounts which would necessarily give to pecuniary wealth upon the one hand. and intellectual poverty upon the other, a monopoly of all the judicial offices in the State. In truth, fundamental laws are not intended to fix salaries at any rate. This is a question of legislation. It has been done, however, and inadequately done, and we have nothing for it now, but to take the best talent we can get for the price stipulated. We should be very careful in our selection not to get men in the interests of railroads and other monopolies. We have had enough of that sort of thing already. Our Federal courts are pretty much prostituted in this respect. and we should see to it that our State judges are free from this corrupting influence. We should select men, as far as possible, who are out of politics, and discard those who regard the sacred office of judge as only one round upon the ladder of political preferment. Such political aspirants always lack independence upon the bench. A sound lawyer, an enthusiast in the profession, and an incorruptibly pure man is the character which we desire for judge, and which the people should insist THE DEMOURACY AND GREELEY.

Will the Democratic party endorse the Liberal ticket? It is impossible to answer this question at this time, and it is unnecessary and unwise to answer it now. The Na tional Democratic Convention will be convened on the 9th of July. By that time, says the Chambersburg (Pa.) Valley Spirit, the strength of the Cincinnati ticket will be apparent. President Grant will have been re-nominated, and Republican journals will have declared for Greeley or Grant. Something like a correct opinion can be formed as to how many of the rank and file of the Republican party really mean reform, and the path of duty for the Democracy will then be clearer. The opinions of the Southern people will have been expressed, and some idea can be formed as to how the electoral votes of the Southern States will be cast.

Our preference, open and undisguised. for the election of a straight-out Democrat. We believe that the country would be safer ander Democratic rule than under the administration of President Grant or Greeley. But if the Democratic National Convention should be of the opinion that the surer way to beat Grant is to endorse Greeley, we shall be content, for, of the two evils we always prefer to choose the less.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The question is being much mooted, and the time for determining near at hand, whether or not the Conservatives shall hold a Convention for the nomination of County officers .-There are many potential considerations of fered, pro and con, yet we consider that the former greatly predominate and will meet with approval generally. It is proposed that the Precinct delegates to be appointed on Saturday, to meet in Charlestown on the Saturday following, for the appointment of representatives to the State Convention, shall be empowered to act in the premises, and if a Convention for the selection of County officers is deemed judicious, it shall accordingly fix the time and place for holding the same.

TOWNSHIP MEETING.

In pursuance to the call of the Chairman of the County Executive Committee, the Democratic and Conservative voters of Charlestown Township are requested to meet at the COURT-HOUSE in Charlestown, on Salurday next, 18th instant, at 2 o'clock, P. M. for the purpose of electing Delegates to the County Convention to be held on the 25th of the present month. It is hoped that every voter of the party in the township will attend this meeting, and not leave the selection of delegates to a few persons and then find fau't with their action; but will give, by their presence and participation, a full and fair expression of the opinions of the masses, and then stand by the result.

Senator Tipton at Martinsburg.

Senator Tipton, of Nebraska, as we learn rom the Era, made a campaign speech at Martinsburg on Monday night of last week. He opened with an arraignment of Grant and the administration, which, as the Era says, was terrific, but not severer than the facts justified.

He claimed that the platform of the "Liberals" was just such as could receive the hearty endorsement of every honest man; that hose principles and lines of policy about which there was room for a difference of opinion was referred to the people, and then the liberal republican candidate, Horace Greeley. had pledged himself to execute the wishes of the people as exhibited through the national legislature. He paid a handsome tribute to the moral excellence of Horace Greeley, and alleged that whatever else might be said about him, no one could deny that he was an honest and high-toned gentleman; and predicted that before next November liberal Republicans and Democrats would be marching in procession, wearing white hats, white coats, with their breeches in their boots, burrahing for Greeley and Brown "

THE CINCINNATI CANDIDATES. Opinions of the Press.

The Bostop Post, the leading Democratic paper, speaking of the Cincinnati Convention nd its nominations, says : "Proposing loft, results, with which the people everywhere were in active sympathy, when it came to the application of its means it failed miserably. ew persons in their sober senses will deny that the nomination of Horace Greeley by an assembly so powerfully equipped with popular sympethy as a candidate for the Presidency is a disappointment for which they were not prepared." The New York Staats-Zeitung says Greecy and Brown are good men, and are liked by both Americans and Germans in this coun ry; but that if Adams had been nominated hey would have been better satisfied. The Zeitung avoids saying who it will support, though it concedes that the Liberal ticket is very strong. They will defer any declaration until after the Germans have held a meeting and decided the question, which will be done next month.

The Philadelphia Press, edited by Colonel forney, says : Mr. Greeley can never, in our udgment, be President. His path to that minence is made rough, not by objections so much as by obstacles, if we may employ the expression. Will the Democratic party en-dorse him? We think nor, after quite a generation's denunciation of them. South may say aye, but the rebel South now follows the sympathetic North just as the latter did the former till the war made "sympathy" another word for hand help. It seems to us that about the hardest pill the Democrats ever had to swallow in their eager hunger for the Presidency is to swallow Horace

The Philadelphia Inquirer (Republican) ays: It is a good thing for one's conscience to be a Radical, but it is not conducive to one's popularity, and Mr. Greeley being a Radical we are not certain that a more conservative candidate would not have answered better the purposes of the Cincinnati Convention.

The Harrisburg (Pa.) Patriot (Dem.) says: For the Liberal Republicans this must be re garded as a strong nomination. With Greeley as their candidate they enfer the field en ergetically against the Administration enemy, neither giving nor taking quarter.

The Richmond Disputch says: The two waves of opposition, with their powerful impulse, met at Cincinnati, and the two prominent men who gave them a start seemed to ride upon them until they were merged in one, and were selected as the nominees under whose anspices the cause was to be carried onward with every promise of a brilliant victory

The Enquirer says: If the battle is to be fought with Grant and Radicalism on the one side, and Greeley and return on the other, the entire Conservative vote of this section will be cast for the latter. But this is a contest as yet confined to the Republican family. It has not yet reached that point where a more explicit expression of opinion is demanded, either from us or from our people. The Lynchburg News says: That Mr

Greeley's nomination is acceptable to us, we cannot admet, and we are not yet prepared to say that we will support him. Should the Democratic Convention endorse him, or fail to make a nomination, then, as between him and Grant, or any other nominee of the Phil adelphia Convention, we expect to throw what ever of influence we may possess in his favor

The Lynchburg Virginian says; Candor compels us to say that this is not the best or strongest nomination that could have been unde, nevertheless, as between Greeley and Grant, or any of the corrupt Ring that now ominates at Washington, we could not hesitate to give our support to the former.

The Lynbhburg Republican says: That he result of the deliberations of the Convention are entirely satisfact my to the Democracy of the country, can not be claimed, for there are other gentlemen who would have been more acceptable to them than either Greeley or Brown. We have no hesitancy in expressing the opinion that, should there be no Democratic nominations, wisdom and policy alike dictate a cordial and enthusiastic support of the Cincinnati ticket by the people of the

The Petersburg Index says: If the Democratic party is wise, its candidate is nominated. If it is determined, its victory is assured.

The Wheeling Register says: General Grant must be beaten. The safety of the Republic demands his relegation to private life If the choice is simply between Grant and Greeley, no lover of his country can hesitate to give his support to Mr Greeley. If, how ever, a regular and thorough going Democratic candidate is nominated, and an effort is made to bring the Administration back to the purity of Democratic times, we believe that West Virginia may be relied upon for flive electoral votes for the Democratic nominee. What does the National Committee say?

The Memphis Avalanche and Appeal un hesitatingly endorse the nominations, and will support the ticket.

The New Orleans Times has a column edtorial enlogistic of the character and attain ments of Greeley, which closes by expressing the belief that he will defeat Grant.

The Republican says the choice is a good one, and will undoubtedly command the confi dence and support of a large majority of the American people. The Bee thinks the nomination of Greeley bad one. It has no idea that the Demo eratic party will endorse it. On the contrary it thinks it insures a straight out nomination by the Democratic Convention. The Picoyune believes the nomination of Adams would have been preferable, but says many accept Horace Greeley on the ground that he is at least bonest. It does not think the nomination of a Democratic ticket within the range of possibility. The National Republican says the deed is done and the Schurzites and Trumbullites are undone. It does not think Greeley can com mand the support of the Democratic party. The Conservative press of South Carolina heartily endorse the Cincinnati ticket and plat form as emidently acceptable to the South. The Springfield (III.) State Register in a leading editorial heart by endorses the platform and nominees of the Cincinnati Convention Gov. Palmer says Greeley and Brown will receive 75,000 Republican votes in Illinois. The Cincinnati Enquirer says: It will be n order to wait and see how the ticket nomi nated by the Liberal wing of the Republican party is received by the people within the party who have thus far given it their support and sanction. In the mean time, let a generous encouragement be extended.

The Louisville Courier Journal says : We are inclined to think that the Democracy will adopt it, but the situation is not of that positive kind-the road before us is not of that assured and open description—to render ou: action perfectly clear in advance.

The St. Louis Republican (Dem.) says: The great mass of Democrats do not want a -The place for Ribbons-"Metropolitan." Democratic Presidential ticket presented to them; they are satisfied with the field as it is They do not wish to be placed under party laws on this Presidential question; they want, for this single occasion, the holiday privilege of doing as they please to. They have made up their mind to this so decidedly that they would not support a Democratic ticket, in mass, even if one should unwisely be present ed to them. They will vote, in mass, for either the Cincinnati ticket or the coming Philadelphia ticket; they will elect either Greeley or Grant.

The Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist, Dem ocrat, says : Among the Democrats the predominant sentiment seems to be that as between Grant and Greeley, the latter would be infinitely preferable. If reduced to the al ternative of taking one or the other, the least nauseous dose would be Horace Greeley. But there are a thousand reasons why Horace Greeley would be distasteful and offensive to Democrats. It is impossible that they can feel any pleasure in his nomination, or contemplate his possible election except as an evil of less magnitude than the continuance of the present disgusting state of things ..

The Knoxville (Tenn.) Press (Dem.) says Altogether, the ticket is in harmony with the movement that it represents, and should it prove acceptable to Liberal Republicans themselves-as we doubt not it will-we apprehend the remaining elements of opposition " Grant's Administration will find but little difficulty in harmonizing in its support.

The Wilmington (N.C.) Journal (Dem.) says: The policy of the South at the present moment should be passive-"a masterly inactivity." We cannot, of course, secure the nomination of such men as we would prefer. We have had no part or lot in the present nominations, and are in no manner responsible for it. Let us consider the situation calmly and leisurely, and cast our influence and our votes as future events will prove to be best for our own interest. BELMONT INTERVIEWED.

NEW YORK, May 5 - Mr. August Belmont, chairman of the national democratic commit tee, was interviewed Saturday, and is reported to have said of the platform and nominees of the Cincinnati convention : "This is now but a bombshell. We must wait untill we see its effect on the press and people, and in fact on many things it must develop. I go turther. It may be policy to adopt the ticket. Mr. Greeley, in my opinion, will run well in the Southern States; but as I said before, it is too soon to judge yet. I will do most anything to beat this administration, not that ! have anything against Grant, but I do not like his idea of government. The Philadel phia convention must meet yet, and then the democratic party will have to act wisely. It make a good nomination. In the meantime I judge it better for the party to say or do nothing. That is better. What we might say now would probably be perverted or turned against us when the nominations are made. DISPATCH FROM HON. D W. VOORHEES. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., May 5 .- The follow ng telegram has been received here from

s-my opinion that the liberal ticket will be

w thdrawn in September if the democrats

Hon. D. W. Voorhees, at Washington: "The democracy will meet as usual in national convention, and through its authorized lelegates nominate its candidates and declare ts policy. Until then no man has the right commit the party as to its future action .-Itsorgan zation and principles should be main tained at all bazards."

WHAT SENATOR THEMBULL SAYS. Senator Trumbull, according to the Wash ng ton correspondent of the Philadelphia Bul letin, (administration.) after saving that he would support the liberal ticket, added his belief that Mr. Greeley would be a popular candidate and make a successful canvass .-From conversation with leading democrats he believed that the democratic convention would endorse the Cincinnatiticket or split the party The Southern democrats are united in favor of Greeley, and they will insist upon the convention endorsing the nomination or break the party to pieces. Mr. Trumball further said that Mr. Greeley's nomination would force the Philadelphia convention to nominate some person other than Grant, and that the coming presidential canvass would be the most exciting ever known in the history of the country. In conclusion, Mr. Trumbull said he hoped that all liberal republicans would rally to the support of Greeley and bury their personal preferences. The London Times thinks that Mr. Greeey's nomination is "farcical and his election hopeless," but it at the same time declares that it kills Grant's chances, and makes the nomination of a candidate by the Democrats certain. The Post argues that the endorsement of either the Democratic or Republican Convention will ensure Greeley's success, but does not think he will get either.

The Savannah Republican (Dem.) says :-We take no hand in this fight so far. Democratic Convention is to meet in Julyperhaps it may be sooner. To that we look, and by that we will be guided. That is the political flag we expect to fight under.

The Macon Telegraph (Dem.) says: The prospect for the success of this ticket depends, of course, upon the action of the Democratic party, and that cannot be known until the assembling of its National Convention. By that decision the party will be bound

The Montgomery (Ala) Advertiser (Dem says: When the unconquerable millions of our mighty party shall gather in their strength and patractism at St Louis, or wherever the Convention may be held, we have perfect con filence that they will decide wisely; and when the party standard is unfurled in the canvass we shall be found fighting under it. If sound prudence and a true devotion to country shall in the opinion of the Convention, ur e us to support Greeley and brown, our best exertions may be depended on to secure their election

The Fredericksburg News (Dem.) says :-'Anybody to best Grant" seems to be the universal sentiment which greated the annonncement of Greeley's nomination. Wait for the action of the National Democratic Convention. That is about the wisest plan. The Fredericksburg Herald (Dem.) says The Cincinusti Convention may be written success if its leaders meant simply to reform the internal workings of their party by giving to that party a choice between Greeley, who has head and heart, and Grant, who has neither; one whose every conviction is honest, and one who, if not himself dishonest, is sur rounded by a pack of officeholders noted for plundering and thieving.

In San Francisco (Cal.) the Call (ind.) says the nomination of Greeley produces the great e-t dismay among federal officeholders. Alta Culifornian (ind.) says, to deny that the lincinnati ticket has strength before the people is idle; but the democracy will probably nominates a ticket of their own, and drive Greeley's friends to support Grant. The Chronicle (rep.) says the Cincinnati platform unexceptionable, but the nomination of Greeley is such a surprise that we can form no idea at present as to its effect upon the mercantile people

- Deputy Sheriff Wiles left on the fast ine west, Monday night, for Wamega, Kanas, to bring back young Rickard, who is unier arrest at that place awaiting a requisition from Governor Jacob .- Mar. Erg.

The Political Situation.

WASHINGTON, May 8. - The political situation to-day has undergone some changes — The very generally credited statements that ex Senator Hendricks and Hon. George H. Pendleton had declared in favor of the Cincinnati ticket turns out after all to be a mistake. To day a letter was received by a democratic member of the House from Mr. Hendricks, is which he speaks of the nominations at Cinemnati as unacceptable, that he cannot commit himself to them, but will be governed by the action of the National Democratic Convention. Word to the same effect comes from Mr.

Pendleton in a letter to another member -On the other hand it is nonceable that among the members from the cities the Greeley and Brown ticket is gaining strength, while the country members, who are mostly non-committal, admit that the almost unversal expression of opinion in favor of Mr. Greeley in the South will have great weight in the national democratic convention. The statement telegraphed from New York, however, that Mr. Greeley intends to withdraw if that convention nominates another tisket, has given rise to no inconsiderable speculation, and and is construed by those democratic del egates to unite on the Cincinnati ticket, while others favorable to the latter say that it is a fair notice to the Democratic Convention to meet the conservatives in a fair way and harmonize all the elements opposed to Grant -The movement to get the latter to withdraw as a candidate has failed in its inception --The administration organ here authoratively announces that the President sees no motive for taking such a step, and gives three very emphatic reasons why he will not withdraw from the convention at Philadelphia. Accepting this declaration as official, Mr. Sumner, it is understood, will promptly declare for the Cincinnati ticket, and advise the colored people to support it.

Democratic National Convention.

NEW. YORK, May 8 - The national democratic executive committee met to-day, in accordance with previous arrangements, at the residence of August Belmont. Thirty States were represented The committee determined upon calling a national convention, to be held in Baltimore on Tuesday, July 9th. The following is the call for the national democratic convention : "The national democratic committee, by virtue of the authority conferred upon them by the last democratic national convention, at a meeting held this day, at New York, voted to hold the next convention for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States, the 9th day of July, 1872, at 12 o'clock M., in the city of Baltimore. The basis of representa-tion, as fixed by the last democratic convention, is double the number of Senators and Representatives in Congress from each State under the apportionment census of 1870 .-Each State will send delegates accordingly. and we invite the cordial co-operation of all conservative citizens who desire the restoration of constitutional government and the perpetuation of republican institutions '
